poster several times, "retmopan i filliopia; my wifel my children!" The gate, trembling under the blows of the assalinate, was giving way. Proudly relaing his hand, Theodore draw his sword to pertial like a Europeac. "I as the besom of the Trinity," aski ha to the balanteherea, "fire." They both sinced at his head, but Eingheddo's courage failed, and his arm latt inert. Area slone obeyed, and his arm latt inert. Area slone obeyed, and his buillet broka tha skull of Africo's brevest warrior. The beinsteherse remelmed by the body of their master, expecting death. At this moment the gate was broken in, and the English soddiers, drunk with blood and carnage, rushed forward. Empheddo showed tham the balose hody of Theodore. At this slight, the soddiers, stupefied, lot fail their arms, and the two guards ware sared, "The will was copied and distributed to such offisers as had remained feithful.
